

Press Release of the 24th IMCWP Working Group Meeting by TKP

The 24th IMCWP Working Group Meeting was held in Istanbul on 19 April 2026, hosted by the Communist Party of Turkey, with the participation of 23 parties.

During the meeting, participants decided on the date, venue, and theme of the 24th International Meeting, and discussed its programme.

Accordingly, the Working Group announces that the 24th International Meeting will take place in Havana, hosted by the Communist Party of Cuba, on August 2026, under the following theme:

“Defending and honouring the legacy of the Cuban Revolution on the centenary of Fidel’s birth; deepening solidarity with socialist Cuba; strengthening our joint actions; and uniting our forces for peace and against imperialist aggression.”

The Working Group also appreciates the invitation extended by the Communist Party of Cuba to participate in the events in August 2026 on the occasion of the centenary of Fidel’s birth.

The parties participating in the Working Group Meeting further express their solidarity with Cuba’s resistance to the US blockade through a joint statement. In addition, a statement expressing solidarity with the peoples of Iran, Lebanon, and Palestine against US and Israeli aggression was adopted during the meeting.
